Whatleys Favourite Fizz

Deutz

Deutz is not only one of our favourite Champagnes but also our house pour. Deutz are based in Ay just outside Epernay often referred to as the heart of Champagne. The house was established in 1838 and was a founding member of the 20 Grand Marques Champagne. There are more than 75 percent of their vineyards in Grand Cru sites these stretch across Avize, Montagne de Reims and the Cote de Blanc. Deutz is also still a family owned and operated estate.

48	Deutz, Amour	2005	£480

Taittinger

Another family owned Grand Marques Champagne based in the famous Champagne town of Reims. Focussing upon Chardonnay Taittinger shows elegance and freshness whilst keeping a level of intensity across the range. Taittinger was only acquired in 1923 but has vastly grown to become one of the most well-known houses in the region. Daniel our sommeliers claim to fame is that he played piano at Foiles de Marqueterie!

A Local Affair

In this section we would like to share two local Wiltshire producers with you, the first is Keith at Bow in the cloud our most local vineyard at the bottom of Malmesbury working with Bacchus, Seyval, Schonburger and Regent as his varieties for the cloud nine blend. The Second is the Ingram Hill's Southcott vineyard where they work with the classical Champagne varieties in the Pewsey Vale of Wiltshire, just beneath the White Horse
