

WHATLEY MANOR HOTEL : BIRD'S EYE VIEW

Gardens at Whatley Manor

Introducing twelve acres of English Country Gardens at Whatley Manor

1. Main courtyard

Planted with six different types of allium; a two hundred year old olive tree stands in the middle of the roundabout

2. North Garden

Planted with white shrubs

3. Loggia Garden

The Loggia Garden is a great place to relax. Make sure you sit in one of the swing chairs in the Cotswold Stone Loggia building. The striking water sculpture is designed by Simon Allison

4. Upper Terrace

5. Rose Garden

300 hybrid tea & floribunda roses flanked by two Cotswold stone summer houses & a small water feature in the centre

6. Knott Garden

French-style box hedging with a striking water feature by Alison Armour-Wilson

7. Bar Terrace

8. Hot Garden

As the name suggests you will find colours of hot reds, burnt oranges & dark chocolates

9. Herbaceous Garden

Home to 5,500 plants

10. Fountain Terrace

The rills are planted with Zantedeschia; the perfect place to enjoy a glass of wine

11. Grand Lawns

The lawns are formal with herbaceous borders, shrubs & plants

12. Butterflies Garden

A superb view into the Wiltshire countryside; we use a planting scheme to encourage bees & butterflies into this part of the garden to boost the natural ecosystem.

13. Wild Flower Meadow

Planted with wild flowers including, cowslips, scabiosa & other meadow plants

14. Silver Birch Copse

Planted with ox-eyed daisies; the silver birches provide shade.

15. River

The Sherston Avon is the perfect spot for sighting trout, crayfish, kingfishers and swans.

16. Woodland

Ash, Oak and Robinia trees provide the top canopy and underneath look out for snowdrops in January and later on, cow parsley.

17. Kitchen Garden Terrace

Experience an enchanting alfresco lunch and dinner served when the weather is fine. In this garden you can spot our chefs picking herbs, salad ingredients and vegetables. The olive tree sets a Mediterranean tone.

18. Spa Garden

The annual meadow is sown with poppies, cornflowers and other wild flowers in keeping with the tranquillity of the spa.

19. Greenhouses

20. Stable Courtyard

Home to our three bronze donkeys by Mr Edouard Marcel Sandoz
