The Salcombe Distilling Co. was started in 2014 by Howard Davis and Angus Lugsdin and sold its first bottle of Salcombe Gin 'Star Point' two years later.

The Company mission is to have a positive impact on the ocean and the life it supports by reducing their carbon footprint.

Joining the "1% for the Oceans" movement is just one of the examples how the company help protect our ecosystems by donating one percentage of the sales of award-winning gins and non-alcoholic spirits, to Marine Conservation Society, which raises awareness for clean seas and beaches, sustainable fisheries and protection of marine life.

Another initiatives include using only carbon neutral shipping service and progressive elimination of plastic from their supply chain.

Taoscán Experience

*Try one of the rarest spirits on the planet ...
Irish single malt over 10 years old - The Taoscán Whiskey*

The Taoscán is the world's first Port & Chestnut finished whiskey.

There are only 4000 bottles per release, and the first 1000 are only available to collectors.

The whiskey has been triple-casked, spending its first eleven and a half years in ex-bourbon casks and a further one and a half years in sherry oloroso casks. Next the whiskey is split, with half dispersed into tawny port casks and the other half into chestnut casks for a further two years, before being blended back together, making The Taoscán the world's first whiskey of its kind.

The Nose: Warm banana bread studded with candied walnut comes to the fore, joined by the rich sweetness of golden syrup and the mellow vanilla of a coke float, balanced out with just a hint of sourness.

The Palate: A rich spice travels through the mid-palate, rounded out with a smooth viscosity that engulfs the whole mouth with an exceptional creaminess. On the back palate, a slightly dry mouthfeel melts into an enveloping luxuriance with warming notes of vanilla, toasted nuts and the joyful memories of campfire s'mores.

The Finish: A medium to long finish of roasted chestnuts and a hint of spice calls to mind the warm embrace of home.
