Historic. Innovative. Unique.

A first-of-its kind whiskey split and finished in Tawny Port and French chestnut casks, then brought together in perfect balance, The Taoscán is a unique whiskey.

There is no whiskey on earth like The Taoscán. While its formative years in American Oak Bourbon casks and Sherry Oloroso butts imparted vanilla, cedar, oaked musk and notes of rich maple syrup, caramelised figs, and juicy raisins, it is the finishing period that delivered a whiskey of era-defining complexity and flavour.

The Taoscán could have been released after its time in American Oak and Sherry Oloroso as a great whiskey. But epitomising and willingness to push boundaries, it was then split across many barrels for two years. Through experimentation and a honed appreciation for flavour, a skilfully balanced blend of the whiskey's time in Virgin French Chestnut and Tawny Port casks delivered a whiskey of ground-breaking complexity and innovation. It is the world's first Tawny Port and French Chestnut single malt whiskey.

The Taoscán offers every element for a perfect single serve but allows to be seen from all angles, inspiring envy from all around. It is a rare whiskey of just 4000 bottles that have been released on St. Patrick's Day 2022 which went through four different barrels to build the flavour over the years. These barrels are underfilled so that maturation can start on day, instead of waiting a few years for the angel's share to evaporate.

The Taoscán Experience

50ml 130

The perfect serve can be enjoyed straight up or in two other ways: A measure of water precisely delivered with the pipette or with a chilled Obsidian whiskey stone or two, if required.
